UNITED WAY

2024-2025 CORPORATE PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

WHY SPONSOR?

Join us in building a more equitable Tri-County, where every individual and family has access to the resources needed to thrive.

For nearly 80 years Trident United Way has been a catalyst for measurable community transformation in education, financial stability and health in Berkeley, Charleston and Dorchester Counties. We have a proud history of developing community-wide initiatives, including partnering with dozens of local nonprofit organizations, leading the creation of our community's 211 Information and Referral Helpline and establishing the Berkeley and Dorchester County Resource Connection Centers.

Working with local organizations builds partnerships and invests in initiatives that create meaningful, long-lasting change for our shared community. Being a Trident United Way corporate partner means you align your company with social responsibility and community-centered values while gaining exposure and engagement opportunities.

Explore our partnership packet for a wide variety of sponsorship options designed to meet your company's goals. Together, let's create lasting change and a brighter future for all.

SIGNATURE EVENTS

OCTOBER – DECEMBER 2024

Trident United Way State of Our Families | October 23, 2024

Unite over a panel discussion and lunch with community partners, companies, volunteers and friends as we present a snapshot of where our families are economically across the Tri-County. Sponsoring this event offers extensive brand exposure both at the event and across various media platforms.

Lunch for Impact | December 9, 2024

The Lunch for Impact is a prestigious gathering where members of the Palmetto and Tocqueville Societies come together to network, gain insights into upcoming community impact initiatives and reflect on Trident United Way's efforts through the release of our annual Impact Report data. This event offers an invaluable opportunity to connect with fellow philanthropists, stay informed about our collective impact and celebrate the positive changes we're making in the Tri-County area.

JANUARY – MARCH 2025

Tri-County Changemakers Annual Oyster Roast | February 5, 2025

A celebration of gratitude for our esteemed members of the Palmetto and Tocqueville Societies for their unwavering support and dedication to helping others. Attendees will have the opportunity to connect with fellow philanthropic community members while enjoying live music and local cuisine in a casual setting.

Young Leaders United Cocktails and Conversations | April 2025

Cocktails and Conversations is Young Leaders United's premier networking event, connecting young professionals with Trident United Way's Tocqueville Society members for insights, networking and leadership development, shaping the future of our community.

APRIL – JUNE 2025

Women in Action: Awards Luncheon hosted by Trident United Way Women United | May 2025

Celebrate the women driving change in our community at this signature Women United annual event. With inspiring award winners and keynote speakers, you'll share your brand with hundreds of community leaders and leave with new connections, networks and ideas.

Trident United Way Family Cookout

The Trident United Way Family Cookout is a special event dedicated to our leadership donors and their families. Bring your families and enjoy a day brimming with fun activities, exciting games and delicious food. This gathering is more than just a cookout; it's a celebration of our vibrant community of Changemakers and a chance to connect with those at the heart of Trident United Way's mission. Come together with us as we honor the spirit of giving and the powerful impact we create together.

JULY – SEPTEMBER 2025

Unite for Our Youth: Back to School Supply Drive hosted by Young Leaders United

Join us as we work to ensure every child's success in the upcoming school year by collecting and distributing backpacks, school supplies and information on local resources for families in our community. This event is two-fold, with a packing event during the day and a networking happy hour once packing is complete.

Pathways to Empowerment Youth Seminar hosted by Trident United Way AALC

Take part in the African American Leadership Council's distinguished event featuring insightful discussions with community leaders aimed at empowering youth in communities of color across the Tri-County area. Share your influence as a Tri-County business and inspire future generations to achieve their dreams.

YEAR-ROUND

Lead United

Lead United is a dynamic multi-session community leadership and nonprofit board development program by Trident United Way that empowers participants with essential skills for board-level service. This course is offered in Spring and Fall to foster impactful community leadership.

Annual African American Leadership Council Donor Group Sponsorship

The Trident United Way African American Leadership Council (AALC) unites Black and minority leaders to drive impactful support for communities of color across the Tri-County area. With a focus on inspiring tomorrow's leaders, the AALC hosts various community engagement initiatives, volunteer projects and networking opportunities throughout the year.

Annual Women United Donor Group Sponsorship

Trident United Way Women United is a diverse and vibrant community, bound together by Trident United Way's mission and a dedication to supporting our Tri-County neighbors. With events fostering knowledge and an opportunity to impact the issues facing Tri-County women, sponsorship of this group represents a unique opportunity to signal your support for the women both within your organization and throughout our broader community.

Annual Young Leaders United Donor Group Sponsorship

Trident United Way Young Leaders United (YLU), a vibrant community of leaders under-40, drives transformative change across the Tri-County area through giving, volunteering and advocacy; uniting to amplify impact to foster lasting solutions with engagement events and volunteer projects. This group also provides unmatched networking opportunities to enhance members' career and philanthropic journeys.

COMMUNITY IMPACT/VOLUNTEER SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Days of Caring: The Premier Community Impact Experience | November 20-22, 2024

Days of Caring is the largest volunteer event in the Tri-County, uniting thousands of dedicated volunteers to support hundreds of nonprofit organizations over three fulfilling days. Together, we make a tangible impact on countless individuals throughout the Tri-County area. This is an opportunity to be part of our most notable event, where your efforts make a tangible impact in our community!

Books for Bright Futures: African American Leadership Council Community Book Drive | March-May annually

Each year the AALC leads a book drive to support Title I elementary school students, aiming to counter the “summer slide” in literacy skills. This program empowers young learners and promotes year-round reading to ensure academic success and brighter futures for all students across the Tri-County.

Read Across America Day | First week of March annually

Trident United Way Read Across America Day is an annual celebration of reading in the Tri-County community. Volunteers visit Title I elementary schools and read aloud to students in grades CD-3rd to foster literacy skills and inspire young learners.

Day of Action | On or around June 21 annually

The Trident United Way Day of Action is an annual global movement in partnership with United Way Worldwide. Together, we support older adults in our Tri-County, building a stronger, more vibrant community for all.
